Palm Springs Golf 2EZ Iron Set

Available in all shaft lengths & lie angles

The 2EZ iron set from Palm Springs Golf is a great value set of golf clubs aimed at improving golfers who want to cut shots from their game.

By increasing/decreasing the shaft length they become more playable for a golfers of different heights. Having the correct length clubs can make a huge difference to your game, affecting both the shape of your swing and the position and angle at which you strike the ball.

Palm Springs Golf 2EZ Iron Set

Stainless Steel Face

Stainless steel has many enviable qualities over cheaper materials. A more consistent material than alloy, your club distances will be more reliable, whilst providing great feel at impact. Furthermore, it will never rust or degrade and so last much longer.

Easy to Hit

The combination of a deep cavity back design and oversized head products a higher MOI – and this translates to a larger sweetspot and more forgiveness from off-centre impacts.

Nano Plating Technology

This painstaking process ensures a stunning mirror like finish on the clubs that is long lasting and durable.
